Staff and Volunteer
Referee Check Consent Form

USE

This document should be used in conjunction with the template local church 'Child-Safe Policy' (v 2013 or subsequent editions) and applicable Conference & AUC / NZPUC policy. It is intended for use with applicants who are being appointed for the first time, after a long period of absence, when the relevant appointing authority, church body, or nominating officers know little of the applicant's background, or to ensure compliance with state legislative requirements.

PURPOSE

The purpose of this form is to enable the local Church and/or Church-sponsored activities and programs to conduct Referee Checks with staff and volunteers who are proposed to work with children and young people in the Church's environments.

COPYRIGHT

This document is copyright by Safe Place Services of the Seventh-day Adventist Church (AUC) Limited and the New Zealand Pacific Union Conference and may be used and customized by local Conferences, churches, companies and plants within their constituent Conferences throughout Australia and New Zealand.

Referee Check Consent Form

A relevant appointing authority (such as a Church board), church body, or nominating officers (such as a selection, nominating, or appointment committee) may request applicants for roles and positions working with children, young people or vulnerable adults to complete this form OR you are being asked to complete this form because you are being considered for a role that would result in you being on the BACC Leadership Team (church board) – and would therefore have spiritual influence over children and young people in the congregation.

This form will be stored securely and privately by the Team Leader and/or other Church officers designated to do so. In accordance with legislated privacy principles, personal information is not used for purposes other than which it is collected and not shared with any other organization.

Claim for position

Describe how your interests and/or experiences relate to working with children or young people:

What qualities or aptitude do you think you possess for working with children or young people (or being in a position of mentorship/leadership of them):

What attracts you, if anything, to the role / position you are being considered for:

Referees

Please provide two referees (not relatives) who would be willing to comment on your suitability as a leader and spiritual mentor at BACC. If you currently work in or have recently left a position (paid or voluntary) working with children or young people, one referee must be provided from that organization who is able to comment on your current work or recent departure from such position.
